Cabinet Member Greeted By Howls And Booes From Miners

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—Howls and booes greeted James J. Davis, secretary of labor, when he was introduced by President John D. Lewis, to the biennial convention of the United Mine Workers of America here today. Davis had asked for "a respectful hearing for a member of the president's cabinet."

While the tumult proceeded, Lewis again took the floor and shouted at the top of his voice to make himself heard: "The honor of your organization is at stake. You are on trial before the country. Exercise self-restraint that our organization be not publicly shamed." He then requested those unwilling to hear the speaker to leave the hall. After prolonged hand clapping, Secretary Davis began to speak.

Secretary Davis drew applause from the delegates when he recommended a long term wage contract of five years, declaring such a wage agreement would bring about a long period of harmony in the coal industry and would eliminate "spot, or short, coal agreements—the worst menace of the industry."

Secretary Davis pleaded for a way in which to make the coal mines of the country safer for the miners.

"Two explosions in a week and nearly 100 lives lost," said the secretary, "is a reflection that takes away our moral credit because they emphasize the lack of proper regulations and cooperation that still makes the operation of our mines three times more dangerous to life and limb than the European."

Water Flasks Hurlled; Fists Used In The Jap Diet

TOKIO, January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—The imperial diet was dissolved today after following scenes of the greatest disorder in which water flasks were thrown and fists used. The disturbance resulted from attempts of the opposition to interrogate the government regarding the attempted wrecking of a train at Nippon carrying opposition leaders to Tokyo.

The outbreak came shortly after the representatives had taken their seats upon the resumption of the diet session. Interrogating the government in connection with the train wreck in which three prominent opposition leaders escaped injury, the foes of premier Kato demanded that the premier resign personally.

Kato, however, refused to rise.

Great disorder immediately ensued, and which Kenjiro Komatsu, minister of communications, attempted to reply to the interrogators. In the confusion an agitator thrust Komatsu aside. A shot followed. The legislators used water containers as missiles and several engaged in fist combat.

Break With Democrats Over Tax Compromise

WASHINGTON, January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—Further revision of the income tax rates was under consideration today by the Republican members of the house and means committee after their break with the Democrats during yesterday's consideration of the new revenue bill.

A reduction in the 1923 taxes, which are payable this year, was voted yesterday by the majority members, and they decided to work out an income rate schedule of their own, according to Chairman Green, because of the refusal of the Democrats to accept their offer to compromise and draft a non-partisan plan.

The cut in the 1923 taxes came as a surprise, neither the Mellon nor Garner plans providing for reductions to take effect before this year.

TEAM LOSES; WHISKERS GROW

WOOSTER, O., January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—The partisan who let his hair grow because his candidate wasn't elected president, or whatever he was running for, is being emulated by Jack McNutt, Pittsburg, student at Wooster College.

McNutt has a month's growth of whiskers on his face now. It depends on the Wooster basketball team whether he shaves or not.

Shortly after Christmas, he watched the Wooster squad go down to defeat. "I will not shave until they win," he resolved.

So far the Wooster basketball team haven't won a game.

Belgians Enjoy Old American Joke

BRUSSELS, January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—Senator Henri Lafontaine, speaking at the annual dinner of the Belgio-American Chamber of Commerce last evening, recalled that Manhattan Island was purchased by Belgian settlers for a bottle of whiskey when relations between Belgium and the United States had always been excellent.

Henry P. Fletcher, the American ambassador in reply said that prohibition in force it might be possible in the not distant future again to buy New York with a bottle of liquor. The story told in the United States, was now in Belgium and was appreciated.

COOLIDGE'S POLITICAL FUTURE IS WRAPPED UP IN THE TEAPOT DONE LEASE SCANDAL

BY DAVID LAWRENCE, Copyright 1924.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—President Coolidge's political future has become wrapped up in the Teapot Dome scandal. There no longer is any question from the action of his friends both inside and outside of Congress that upon the issue of the lease of the oil fields in California will depend to a large extent the opportunities he has for nomination and election.

Whether the issue is big enough to force the defeat of the Republican Party at the polls it is of course too early to say but the nervous activity of the Republican leaders indicates that they will leave no stone unturned to prevent the Teapot Dome affair from achieving an exaggerated importance politically.

To quote the supporters of President Coolidge feel he has handled an awkward situation well and that his selection of Thomas W. Gregory, former Attorney General in the Cabinet of a Democratic President, together with Silas H. Strawn, Republican, is a shrewd move.

Resolution Demanding Denby Resign Is Taken Up

WASHINGTON, January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—The Walsh resolution directing the president to proceed with suits to annul the Doheny and Sinclair oil leases was adopted by the senate today.

Final action was taken after all efforts to modify the language of the resolution so as to eliminate direct charges that the leases were entered into without authority and in violation of the law had been voted down.

The vote was unanimous on the final roll call. Eighty-eight senators cast their ballots.

The resolution demanding the resignation of Secretary Denby was then taken up by the senate.

TO HOLD REPUBLICANS RESPONSIBLE FOR SCANDAL

CLEVELAND, O., January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—With the prediction that the Teapot Dome "scandal" will be laid at the door of the Republican party and President Coolidge and that it will be the major issue of the 1924 campaign ringing in their ears, Democratic women from seven middle western states today continued their study of the technique of the political campaign at their "School of Democracy."

The Teapot incident, after creeping into practically every address made to the gathering, was brought officially before the women last night when Mrs. Emily Newell Blair, of Missouri, vice chairman of the Democratic National Committee, declared that President Coolidge "must have known" of it and that his party must be held accountable. Her indictment of the Washington government included the charge that it was "an administration of scandals; of mal-administration and of dishonesty in high places."

"Spellbinding" was to be the theme of today's courses of instruction. Mrs. Mabel Wilson, of New York City, National Education Director of the party, was to conduct a class in public speaking, after which the pupils themselves, many of them experienced in campaign oratory, were to exhibit their declamatory ability before imaginary audiences possibly sprinkled with the annoying heckler. Mrs. Thornton Brown, of Missouri, national organizer and co-conductor of the school, also was to describe organization methods.

BERLIN, January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—Corlis Hoover Griffis, of Hamilton, O., former American army officer, who was sentenced to eighteen months in jail at Moscow, Baden, for alleged conspiracy in a plot to kidnap Grover C. Bergdoll, American draft evader, is again a free man. Released from prison late yesterday afternoon after serving less than two months of his sentence, Griffis left Moscow immediately, proceeding to Stuttgart accompanied by Mr. Magnusson, the American vice consul.

Griffis' plans were still unknown here early today but it was assumed he would lose little time in returning to the United States.

The pardon came as a complete surprise to the former officer, although he knew that friends in America were working for his release.

Oil Lease Not Discussed Before Cabinet, Says Hughes

WASHINGTON, January 31.—(By the United Press)—The legality or propriety of the naval oil leases were never brought before the cabinet for decision. Secretary of State Hughes declared today. In reply to an inquiry Hughes made the following statement:

"The questions of legality or propriety of oil leases now under discussion in congress were never brought before the cabinet. My opinion on these questions was never sought or expressed either in or out of the cabinet. If the oil leases ever were referred to in cabinet meetings, and I do not recall that they were, it was certainly only by way of general reference and not requiring any responsible action, which of course I would not be willing to take without examination of papers and statutes. Having plenty of work in the department of state I had no occasion to consider the question of law involved and I have not been called upon to take any responsibility in the matter."

Broken windows and seats and general damage to cars has been caused by intoxicated persons leaving the Canadian city, the order said, and it is desired to protect the company's property from further destruction.

He is known as the "Whistling Mayor."

Luce operates a central delivery for the grocery and meat stores of Columbus Grove. Usually he has a following of children tagging behind him to listen to his merry tunes. When he was proposed for chief executive of the village, the name "Whistling Mayor" was applied to him, and he credits that fact with his victory.

COOLIDGE CONFERS WITH DEMOCRATS

WASHINGTON, January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—Both Democratic and Republican leaders of the senate were consulted by President Coolidge today just before the debate on the Walsh oil lease amendment resolution was resumed.

After the ranking senators in the Republican senate organization had paid an early call at the White House the president summoned Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana, who has had a dominant part in the oil inquiry and Senator Harrison, of Arkansas, the Democratic floor leader and author of the resolution calling for the resignation of Secretary Denby.

White House officials said they desired to discuss with the two Democratic leaders the whole question of the investigation as made by the senate committee and as contemplated by the executive branch of the government.

Stack of Letters To "Dear Sweetie" Ready for Reading; Candler Wrote Sweet Nothings to Mrs. De Bouchelle

ATLANTA, GA., January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—A stack of letters to "Dear sweetie," which were arranged on a counsel table in the United States district court here and were expected to be read during the second day of the trial of the $500,000 breach of promise suit against Asa G. Candler, Sr., soft drink manufacturer, of Atlanta, by Mrs. Onzima De Bouchelle, of New Orleans, yesterday afternoon, consisted of thirteen letters, counsel stated. Mrs. Candler wrote to Mrs. De Bouchelle as many as three letters a day.

"And I am to be the master of your heart; my, my! I never imagined that I would ever master the heart of a queen. I must begin to expand—so that I can readily hold the sceptre of my kingdom and prepare to rule with the kindest justice," read Mrs. De Bouchelle's counsel yesterday from a letter he said had been penned by Mr. Candler to Mrs. De Bouchelle, who at the time was residing in Reno, Nev.

The dates were early in the spring of 1922. Until then, after their first meeting in November, 1921, at a Confederate Veterans' Reunion here, Mr. Candler corresponded with Mrs. De Bouchelle, so a letter stated. "For culture and assistance, which, being done, I found myself admiring you."

Later another letter stated that Mr. Candler had investigated the "manner of woman" Mrs. De Bouchelle was and after "from every available source. I learned of your excellency, good breeding and personal charm. I unconsciously loved you."

Then came the proposal which Mrs. De Bouchelle, according to a letter, read from Mr. Candler, accepted after she had obtained a divorce from Adolphe Roquet in Reno, in September, 1921.

The same episode stated Mr. Candler had three conferences to hold "then I am ready to depart for Eden as it was after Adam's nap and rib experience. I am doing my best, you see. While you are my sweetheart, after that chapter is ended, I'll have you where I want to have you."

The engagement secret leaked out in August, and also dark clouds over the romance began to gather. In a letter dated August 10, Mr. Candler wrote "the announcement of no citizens' wedding has ever caused as much talk and produced as many letters of every kind as has mine."

Today's stack of letters are expected to reveal his preparation for his departure for the west and the alleged findings of the "prominent citizen" whose visit to New Orleans was causing the capitalist much worry.

MONROE, Mich., Jan. 31.—The affidavit charging Federal Prohibition Officer E. W. Rickey of Portsmouth with murder was signed by Samuel Kalb, father of Philip Kalb, aged 22, who was killed during a raid staged in his home on January 2 by a squad of nine dry agents.

Senior Confesses Murder of Student

CINCINNATI, O., January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—Apparently unperurbed by the fact that he faced a probable charge of murder, Halton P. Siddall, of Equality, Ill., a senior at Ohio Dental College, last night told police how he had slain his friend and classmate, John A. Mazzola, son of a wealthy Panama City merchant, and disposed of the body by throwing it into a creek.

Mazzola's body, with a bullet wound and numerous stiletto cuts, was found in the shallow water early yesterday.

Declaring that "under the same provocation, I would do it again," Siddall told the officers that he and Mazzola went for an automobile ride at the latter's suggestion. When they were driving along Mazzola, he said, made a disparaging remark "about a friend of mine" and a fight ensued. He declared Mazzola drew a stiletto or knife and slashed at him with it. After struggling for fifteen minutes in the closed automobile, Siddall said, he succeeded in extracting a revolver from his pocket, shot Mazzola twice and pitched him over an embankment, into the water.

While Siddall insisted Mazzola had his overcoat on when he threw him into the creek, police declare the overcoat was found fifty feet away. The prisoner also said he did not know what became of the dead man's stiletto or a diamond ring and diamond stick pin he is believed to have worn. These articles were missing when the body was found.

The confessed slayer refused steadfastly to say whether it was a man or a woman about whom Mazzola made the disparaging remarks.

Word was received that Mazzola's brother, a dental student at the University of Pennsylvania, would arrive today to take charge of his brother's body.

Siddall's father, who is a hardware merchant at Equality, Ill., was notified of his son's arrest, and left at once for Cincinnati.

Akron, Soon Carless, To Ride In Buses And Sedans

AKRON, O., January 31.—(By the Associated Press)—With street car service on all city lines suspended at midnight tonight, the city of Akron will place in service a fleet of buses and Ford sedans with which they hope to care for the transportation problem.

As the first move in this direction a fleet of 105 Fords reached Akron early this morning, coming here from Cleveland. Others are expected during the day from Columbus and Detroit. These cars are being sent to Akron by Henry Ford, who is donating them for the use of the city during the traction strike, according to H. S. Fritchman, president of the Fritchman Tire and Rubber Company, a close friend of Mr. Ford.

City officials this morning announced a complete list of routes over which the buses will operate, replacing street cars. They have announced a straight five-cent fare with no transfers, and expect to operate on a three minute schedule.

A. C. Blinn, general manager of the Northern Ohio Traction and Light Company, announced this morning that interurban cars will continue to be operated over city lines. City officials declare they will stop this service a few minutes tonight when the old franchise expires.

Rebel Losses

Were Heavy

MEXICO CITY, January 31.—(By Radio via Fort Worth Star Telegram)

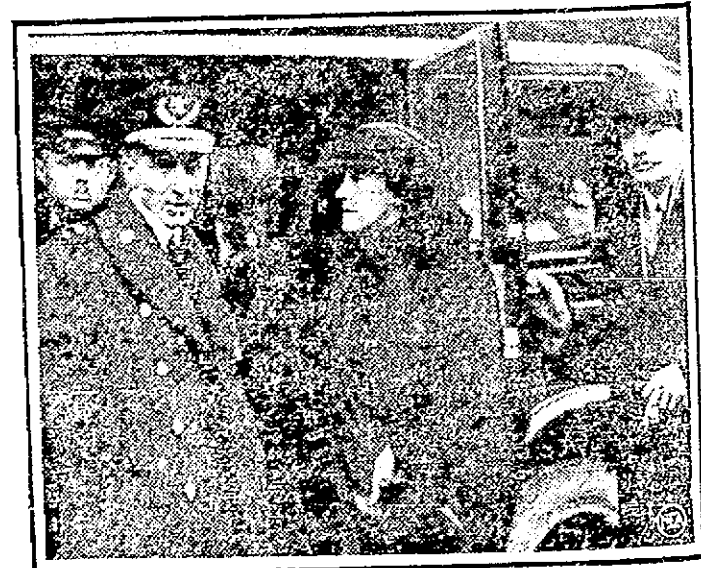

—(By the Associated Press)—Total rebel losses during engagements resulting in Federal capture of Esperanza and Boon Monte were 1,850, according to official reports to the war department. The number includes 1,300 prisoners, 400 dead and 180 wounded. Material of war captured includes 1,600 rifles, 11 machine guns and three pieces of artillery. Eighty officers were among the prisoners.

In capturing Esperanza, the Federal took an important rebel code, which resulted in the interception of wireless messages between the rebel generals de la Huerta and Estrada, and rebel agents in the United States. The nature of the messages was not made public.

The Federal also took the pay car of General Mayotte's troops, which contained nearly 200,000 pesos.

Federal losses, according to official reports, totaled only 22 dead, including 11 officers, and 262 wounded. Efficiency of artillery was responsible for the comparatively small number of casualties. General Martinez reported.

Coolidge

Almost everywhere in Washington that one goes the Tenpot Dome scandal is being discussed and the questions usually asked relate entirely to the effect of the controversy on Mr. Coolidge's chances of re-election if he is nominated. At first in the senate debate there was an effort to drag Mr. Coolidge into the affair by pointing out that he sat at cabinet meeting under President Harding and must have been in a position to take a part in the making of the oil leases. The President has let it be known that he has no recollection of cabinet discussion but that if it took place the consideration given was quite casual. Albert B. Fall, former secretary of the interior, in his report to President Coolidge speaks of frequent cabinet discussion but it is possible, of course, that Mr. Coolidge was absent as it will be recalled that he accepted many speaking engagements as Vice President which Mr. Harding was unable to accept.

But the answer given to the charge that Mr. Coolidge was jointly responsible for what was done is that he did not know of any irregularity and that the debates to which he listened in the Senate over which body he was presiding officer did not conclusively prove any irregularity.

Senator Lewis, however, who is prepared to attack him on the ground that he is retaining in his cabinet men whose failure to perform their duties is brought out by the record of the Senate committee. The resolution calling upon Secretary Denby to resign probably will be followed by another asking that the Attorney General be asked to resign. Neither will have enough votes to pass as the Republicans can muster enough votes to prevent such action. That, however, will not dispose of it for the Democrats would then keep on talking about it until the November elections. It is a subject which permits of considerable talk, and on the Democratic side there are some voluble talkers.

Senator Caraway, of Arkansas, Democrat, has already made a speech on the claim of President Harding that in permitting the vice president to sit at the cabinet table the latter would gain enough knowledge of public affairs as to enable him to take over the presidential office and be familiar with what was going on. Now it turns out that Mr. Coolidge as Vice President claims he did not know what was going on. The Democrats will make the most of that point.

As for the Secretary of the Navy, his defense is that he had no discretion in signing the leases which transferred the naval reserves to the Interior Department. Confronted with an executive order signed by the President, he feels it was his duty to sign the papers presented to him by the Navy Department. The controversy in the Navy Department on this subject in preceding administrations Mr. Denby should have consulted the law offices of his Department and advised the President whether the Executive order was a valid exercise of power. It appears that Mr. Harding took legal advice and according to the Democratic Senators, Mr. Fall's views were given at a time when he was indebted to the oil people for large personal loans.

Did Attorney General Daugherty block the investigation of the California oil leases in deference to the Standard Oil company? The Democrats have injected that question into the whole controversy and will keep up their attack on Mr. Daugherty in the hope of focusing attention on the Coolidge cabinet.

Both Mr. Denby and Mr. Daugherty are men who would not for a minute embarrass the President by remaining in his cabinet. But who will say that they would assist their party by withdrawing because resignations would promptly be given as proof of the charges they have been making?

Under the circumstances President Coolidge will move slowly, depending on the special counsel to investigate criminal features and arguing that only one side of the case has been heard and that all persons involved should be given a hearing before judgment is passed by the American people.

Suit Against School Trustees of Chinnville Started in Circuit Court at Greenup Thursday

(Special to Times)

GREENUP, Ky., Jan. 31.—When the trial of Mrs. Roberta Lee Hays Walker vs. Trustees of the Chinnville school district, who seeks to recover damages to the extent of $1,000 from the trustees and damages from James Melvin, one of the trustees, who she alleges he injured her will, was begun before Circuit Judge W. C. Halbert of this place Thursday, the courtroom was packed with spectators.

According to Mrs. Walker, back in 1922 a meeting was called at the Chinnville school building and Mrs. Walker, who was then Miss Roberta Lee Hays, had planned to attend the meeting. She says that Mr. Melvin came after her in a machine and after she had ridden half way to the school building she decided to return home. Later a charge of detaining her against her will was filed against Melvin, who strenuously denies his guilt.

Subsequently Miss Hays, who later married a man named Walker, was released as a teacher at the Chinnville school and she later filed a damage suit against the trustees, alleging that she hadn't been let out with sufficient grounds and that her dismissal reflected upon her character.

Attorneys S. S. Willis of Ashland and M. E. Fullerton of Fullerton, and T. E. Nichols of Greenup are representing Mr. Melvin and the prosecution is being looked after by Commonwealth Attorney John Colton of Greenup and Attorney John Waugh of Ashland.

Cabinet

Open opposition to Secretary Davis has been the burden of editorials in Radical periodicals lately.

Turmoil yesterday ruled the convention of the United Mine Workers of America for a solid hour. Delegates of both the administration and insurgent camps with the chip on their shoulders, justified the conduct of their leaders in yesterday's disturbance.

Administration supporters were loud in praise of President Lewis today and severe in their criticism of the opposition. A delicate subject, that of the Ku Klux Klan membership, is due for consideration today. Feeling concerning the issue is noticeable and even were other distracting questions out of the way, a controversy that would split both administration and insurgents was believed certain. There are several resolutions both for and against the Klan. The present law of the organization is that any member convicted of Klan membership shall be expelled from the Union. A small wagon load of anti-Klan literature was distributed among the delegates yesterday.

"Shout (ill you meet in hell," President Lewis thundered when the rioting reached the edge of his platform, "but the chair won't change his rule." He had first ruled that anti-administration forces had failed to get sufficient votes to secure another roll call, on a proposal to change representation in the convention.

Insurgents fought for a return to the rule in effect before the 1922 convention when it was charged representation was reduced because of the size of the anti-administration delegates from Illinois. They lost on division of 785 to 692, and then voted 558 for a roll call, which was an insufficient number.

Hillfolk Insurgents Leaders
Insurgent delegates from Illinois were the leaders in the demonstration. Refused in a demand for a recount of those who had voted for a roll call, Joe Lynn of Peoria, Ill., gained the front of the hall and yelled for a following and waved toward the right approach to the platform.

He ran into the most picturesque of the anti-administration supporters, who has a reputation as a "shooter." Smith in his name.

"Not a one of you goes," the bellowed old man shouted, "while I am here to stop it." The bold front of this delegate from Rayville, Tenn., came at the right moment and Lynn was deprived of a following.

Insurgent delegates from Illinois, at one time demanding, then appealing, tried without effect to restore order. Shouts of "give us justice," and "we want a square deal" filled the immense hall to the echo. Each time he called on Secretary VanBitter of the constitution committee to continue reading items of his report.

One Man Hurt
One delegate was hurt in the fray. Alvin Fizzle of Local 8137, Fairfield, Pa., was knocked to the floor by a blow in the face while yelling for a "square deal." He declared he did not know the name of his assailant but could recognize him, and would "get him."

Today's excitement followed the dull period of the convention, the roll call on the proposition to take appointive powers from the international president, which was lost by a vote of 2,106 to 2,292, a scant margin of 186 votes.

Rheumatic Neuritis LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Every druggist in this county is authorized to say to ever rheumatic sufferer that if a full pint of Allenbur's pure quinine of rheumatism, does not show the effect to stop the agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenbur has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiful and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discoverer of Allenbur, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenbur decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed druggists to guarantee it as above in every instance. DEAR MISS WISE—Will appreciate very much if you will answer the following questions to me: How many representatives does the state of Ohio have in the National Congress? Who are these representatives called? Who is our Senator at the state capitol and who are our representatives at the state capitol? THANK YOU

Ohio has twenty-two representatives or congressmen in the National Congress, and two senators. The senator from this district is Thomas A. Jenkins of Irondale, and our Representative is Adam Erick.

DEAR DOLLY—When one is married in the evening, is it proper to serve anything, say, about nine o'clock? If so, what would be nice to serve? Also tell me how long the bride should stay before they left on their wedding trip? Is it necessary to stick around until all the guests leave?

PROSPECTIVE BRIDE—It would be perfectly all right to serve a light lunch after an evening wedding. Dainty sandwiches, small cakes, nuts, candy, and coffee or punch served from a center table would be appropriate. The bride couple may leave after the guests are served, and after they are most of them. There is really no set time and I would advise you to go while the going is good, or the guests are likely to get hold of you and not let you go.

DEAR MISS WISE—Please answer the following through your column: Where are the following magazines published? Country, Life, Dog World, Farmer and Breeder, Indiana Farmer's Guide, and The Farmer. Does the state agricultural experiment station issue bulletins for free distribution? If so, whom may I address? THANK YOU

Country Life is published at Garden City, N. Y.; Dog World in Chicago, Illinois; Farmer and Breeder, Sioux Falls, North Dakota; Indiana Farmer's Guide, Ellettsburg, Indiana; The Farmer is published in St. Paul, Minnesota. The state agricultural experiment station is located at Wooster, Ohio, and you should address your letter to whatever department you want information from.

M. E. J.—I sure would drop that man, as you would never be happy with a jealous husband. Of course if he has any grounds for his suspicions, that's different.

N. G. C.—I wouldn't waste time nor space talking about the people you mentioned. Just let them rave on as they don't amount to anything, and never will get anywhere.

BUR—The papers published in Joplin, Missouri, are the Globe and News-Herald. You can get a copy of either by writing to the Circulation Manager.

DAILY TIMES READER—Report mail carrier to Postmaster W. H. Harbin, at the post office.

BROWN EYES—You are too young to marry for several years, and by that time you will be able to decide for yourself what kind of a husband to select. However, I would advise you think a long time before you marry a man who could not get along with his first wife. The chances are, he will treat you the same way.

"I help to hang awnings and rack on the screens. And see to it that curtains are straight. For cleaning the wall-papers I am the means. Oh, house-cleaning time is just great!

"And as for adventures I've many a thrill: When loudly the fire-whistle blows, I rush like the wind and then brave-

More Art Of Mexican Troops At Border

The Mexican warrior takes his wife and children with him when he goes out to fight—even when he makes part of the trip through a foreign country. This picture, snapped at Juarez, Mexico, shows some of the families accompanying the soldiers in their box-car ride across Arizona, New Mexico and part of Texas. President Obregon will use the men to strengthen his eastern forces in the fight against rebels.

These gentlemen look more like movie bad-men than soldiers in American eyes, but President Obregon of Mexico was so anxious to hurt them against rebel forces that he secured American permission to transport them over U. S. soil. This group was snapped in Juarez, Mexico, while awaiting orders. Note the trooper on the right. He must be supply sergeant, as he has twice the usual number of hats one man needs.

Father Accuses Son Of Murder Of His Daughter

MILLVILLE, N. J., Jan. 31. — (By The A. P.)—Thompson Dickson, 55-year-old father of Danny Dickson, 18-year-old high school girl, whose body was found in a swamp two miles from her home on Sept. 22 last, last night was formally charged with the murder of his daughter and was arrested at his home by County Detective Lore, who has been working on the case for the last four months.

The arrest, Detective Lore said, was made as the result of information which Jonathan Dickson, 80-year-old grandfather of the girl, revealed late today. After lengthy questioning, Detective Lore said, the aged man, who lived with his son and granddaughter, broke down and admitted that his son had beaten the girl to death in their home on the night of September 19, and then carried the body to the swamp two miles away.

Thompson Dickson surrendered quietly when the officers appeared and was taken to the Bridgeton jail. He refused to discuss the case. Miss Dickson disappeared on September 19, and for more than a week police searched for her. On September 22, her body was found in a swamp near her home.

Examination of physicians revealed that the girl had been beaten to death with a hammer, the hub cap of an automobile.

What Physicians Say About Pneumonia

Dreaded Disease Discussed by Eminent Authorities

Medical authorities make the astonishing statement that 10 per cent of the people who die, die directly or indirectly from the scourge of pneumonia—or in this the worst of it. An eminent Pittsburgh physician states that the pneumonia death rate during the fall, winter and early spring months has not been appreciably reduced in the last half century. Physicians of recognized eminence have repeatedly asserted in regard to pneumonia—that in practically all cases it is a history of severe and unhealed colds before pneumonia develops.

Could germs multiply by the millions unless promptly checked grave danger from this disease may result.

THE MORAL
Do not treat a cold as a light matter for as the physicians tell us, if colds were treated right and cured, pneumonia would be a rare disease. The experience of many years has shown that one of the very best methods of treating colds is to take a course of the medicinal tea aids in stimulating the circulation, heating the blood and moving the waste products from the system.

Bulgarian Tea is splendid for colds, stomach, liver and bowel troubles. Every sensible person will recognize the value of having on hand a handy size box of Bulgarian Herb Tea for emergency purposes.

SWORDS IS DISMISSED

William Swords, Broussard Run, arrested by state prohibition officers on a charge of selling five gallons of moonshine at $8 per gallon to Basil "Dip" Cutlip, on about January 7 was dismissed by Judge W. R. Sprague, Wednesday afternoon in municipal court. Harry Kinnaman, and James Plow who claimed to be with Cutlip were witnesses for the state, but could not say from whom the supply was purchased. After Cutlip had been placed on the stand by the state and admitted buying the liquor from another man and not the aged Mr. Swords, Judge Harry Ball, prosecuting the case on behalf of the state asked that the charge be dismissed.

The machine the three young men were in was stopped on the Lucasville bridge going out and an empty jug was broken by the state officers who at that time were arresting Howard Bazler and his friends who tossed a liquor supply from the bridge when the officers approached.

Cutlip claimed the purchase was made on Waverly's Run and not Broussard Run. Kinnaman and Plow claimed Mr. Swords was present but Cutlip claimed he was not present at the purchase. Cutlip admitted taking the liquor out of the machine and bringing it to the city via boat across the high water from near the County Infirmary.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 15 years and eminent old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid liver.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night just to keep right. Try them, 10c and 20c.

Laud Coolidge For Stand On Teapot Dome

CANTON, Jan. 31.—(By the A. P.)—The stand President Coolidge has taken in the Teapot Dome investigation was endorsed by James J. Davis, secretary of labor and former Federal Judge William L. Day, of Cleveland, in addresses tonight at the McKinley day banquet of the Canton McKinley club.

Both speakers, commenting on the investigation, pointed out that if anybody had betrayed a trust he could expect no sympathy from the president.

"We have a fuss on now in Washington," Secretary Davis said, "but we have a real man in the White House. If there is any house cleaning to be done the Republicans can do it themselves."

"If any official, be he Democrat or Republican, has taken a bribe he should be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law," Judge Day declared. "The course of the Republican party should be to take in the matter, however, should not be dictated by some unknown man who happens to be temporarily in the senate."

Secretary Davis in his address enumerated achievements of the Republican administration.

A great many people who take Ka-dik, the new herbal remedy, now being introduced here, say that they can see an immediate improvement in their condition. For instance, just recently Mr. Charles Vogel of 400 Coal St., Wheeling, W. Va., called on the Ka-dik representative, and said:

"I had been working at railroad for fourteen years, but met with an accident about a year ago and had to leave my foot amputated just below the knee. I was in the hospital for six months and went through four operations. When I was discharged from the hospital I was a nervous wreck and in a very weak condition. I had no desire to eat, but when I did take a little food I had bad attacks from indigestion. I was very much constipated and felt in a very bad way. It seemed as though this accident, which was the first I ever had, caused me to suffer from a general breakdown. I read about Ka-dik and started on my first bottle about a month ago. I am here to tell you that it helped me almost immediately. I am taking it right along and today I feel like my natural self again. I am eating heartily, my nervous system is all right, and I feel a hundred per cent all right and have not an ache or a pain about me."

Wooden Legged Bank Swindler Is Smooth One

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 31.—(By the A. P.)—A man who, police say, is one of the cleverest bank swindlers ever arrested in Toledo, was captured by a teller in the Commerce Guardian Trust & Savings bank today. The arrest followed the spreading of a warning and description of the man Tuesday.

Because of the suspect's wooden leg, police say he is Joseph Hurst of Cleveland, who is said to be wanted in many cities throughout the country.

The method used, say police, was that of opening an account with a small deposit. A few days later he would return with a check for a large sum and depositing part in his account, take the rest in money. He would usually request the latter performance once, said police, and on his last visit would withdraw all but a small amount from the account.

Checks presented were all on out of town banks, giving the man time to carry out his game before word was received by the local bank that the checks were worthless. The man, who gave the name of Clarence Miller, of this city, is said to have secured sums from a number of Toledo banks.

CHARACTER OF MEN WHO ACCUSE TIFFIN MAYOR IS ATTACKED

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 31.—(By the A. P.)—The character of Eugene Grimes and Charles Bare were attacked in United States District Court here today in the trial of Adolph Unger, former mayor of Tiffin, Ohio, and 24 other Tiffin residents, for alleged conspiracy to violate the prohibition laws.

Grimes and Bare pleaded guilty to the conspiracy charges and when used as government witnesses, implicated Unger.

Frederick E. Feagles, a Tiffin merchant, called as a defense witness, declared he "would not believe Grimes under oath."

Earn S. Abbott, managing editor of the Tiffin Advertiser, testified also for the defense that "Bare had not borne a good reputation since becoming mixed up in politics."

Others who attacked the reputations of the government witnesses were Frank Bloom, a resident of Tiffin for 69 years, and Ernest A. Hancmerer.

Edwin C. Graham, a taxi-cab driver who was employed in Unger's tire shop during the time the alleged conspiracy was said to have been in progress, testified for the defense that neither Grimes nor Bare had been frequent visitors at the mayor's place of business.

The trial will be resumed tomorrow morning.

Permanent assignment of rooms for the delegations will not be announced pending his arrival.

Here Are Winners In Bank Picture Contest

As will be seen in a large display on, publicity manager of the Union Trust Co., the largest bank in Ohio. In making the awards, the judges stated that it was a most difficult task due to the many thousands of titles and the fact so many possessed unusual merit. It took them several busy days to arrive at a mutual understanding, which not only proves the popularity of the contest, but the thoroughness with which the judges did their work. They state that in all their experience with matters bearing a public nature they never saw so many replies, which speak well for the advertising methods of the First National Bank and the thoroughness with which things are done by the big institution.

The titles submitted are as follows: Thomas Adams—"On a Christmas Club you can depend, for Yuletide Pleasures Without End." Helen Lind—"Hurry are they at the year's end, who save before they spend." Mr. McElhany—"The way to know more than ever before—First National Christmas Club." Mrs. Pepper—"Join a Club, do not delay, helps you out on Christmas Day."

The judges appended a note to their findings, which has such a tinge of humor in it, that it will bear the light of publicity. It was as follows: "In just the judges thought, that Ruth O'Leary, who sent in the answer that Santa Claus was saying 'Save your money and buy a Cow,' should be awarded four quarts of skimmed milk. The judges took into consideration the fact that Ruth could not have been any relation to Mrs. O'Leary whose cow kicked over the lantern that caused the great Chicago fire."

In speaking about the contest, the officials are free to admit that were a little foolish as to the popularity of the plan. However, it had been tried out in Cleveland with a fair measure of success and it was given a trial here. Now the officials are unanimous that it was without a doubt one of the cleverest plans of publicity and they will, no doubt, commission the artist to draw another titleless picture when it comes time to announce the opening of their 1925 Christmas Banking Club. In which event it will no doubt prove even more popular than the one just closed. The bank officials want to thank all who helped make the affair so successful, and are only sorry that all could not have been declared winners.

Law Robs 5 Children of Mother; Deported As Excess Quota

BY ALEXANDER HERMAN

NEA Service Staff Writer

ARBUCKLE, N. Y.—Five little innocents victims of our immigration laws—the youngest two years old, the oldest nine—born from their mother's arms as "excess quota" can't find much joy in this land of their dreams.

Instead they discover new terrors daily, and they tell each other about the pain whistles.

"Mum—she must be dead," sobs five-year-old Eugene. "Else she would come to me when I'm sick. She always does."

He has the measles. And his nine-year-old brother Emil—head of the little troupe of unfortunates—can't muster up much courage to dissuade him. For, he too, has a suspicion that the worst has happened.

Troubles Make Youngster Old

"Laws are made to help people," said this old little man, wise beyond his years. "Not to hurt them. Yet look what it has done to us—it has robbed us of our mum, split up our whole family, and makes us cry all day."

"I'm not very old, and I hope to live many years. But I shall never forget the look on my mother's face as they took us away."

It was on the deck of the Muenchen, transatlantic liner, a few minutes before sailing time. Emil, and his four brothers and sisters, were to be deported with their mother, Mrs. Franz Dantes. They had been six months on their way to join their daddy, who came to America a year and a half ago. Since then he had worked hard, saved enough to send for his family, and built a nice little home in Long Island.

The whole family was keyed up for a happy reunion. But it never came, for immigration authorities discovered that Mrs. Dantes had been born on a Dutch ship in a Belgian port. The immigration quotas for both Holland and Belgium had been filled. Mrs. Dantes therefore, could not be admitted, despite the fact that her husband had already taken out his first naturalization papers.

But her children were of German birth and that quota still was open. They could be admitted, if it was proved there wasn't no likelihood of their becoming public charges. This wasn't proved to the satisfaction of the authorities until just before sailing time. And then—

Came the ruthless parting. Without clothes, baggage, or even a clean handkerchief the mother was sent back to Germany. She even did not have the chance to say good bye to her husband!

Some day she may come back, but it won't be for a long time. For the excess quota do not go into effect until July. In the meantime the mother, torn with the anguish of knowing that her loved ones are 3000 miles away, will have to shift for herself in a strange city.

A Woman Without a Country

"She has a sister in Antwerp," says her husband. "But she can only stay there six weeks at a time, for she is the wife of a German. In the eyes of the Belgian law, she can't stay in Germany, as the wife of a citizen. For I've declared my intention of becoming an American. She can't come to the United States because she was born in a country, whose quota has been exhausted."

"She's a woman without a country," the authorities told me I could get her in, if I sailed with her and brought her back as the wife of a declarant of United States citizenship. But I'm not wealthy, and can't see the necessity of plunging into absurdity to untangle such red tape."

Strangling in its meshes is the happiness of the little children. Four of them live with Mrs. Agnes Paulson, their aunt. She is very kindly but her quarters are cramped. The baby stays with another relative in Brooklyn.

The new house, which the whole family was going to keep aglow, remains dead and cold.

Reports from many towns in the state indicate that Ohio mayors are "going after 'em" and have not let up in their drive against vice, illicit liquor traffic and the like.

Columbus and Cleveland police are still busy and bringing them in in droves daily—liquor law violators, dope peddlers, etc.

Lancaster reports the record for liquor law violation fines in Fairfield county was broken last week when William Humphreys, Waterloo, was fined $1,800 for illegal possession. This is the highest in Fairfield county for liquor law violation, it is said.

Mayor C. M. Neff, of Mt. Sterling, is "death on liquor possessors". Recently he fined Kenneth Taylor, of Derby, $1,000 for illegal possession and when Taylor said he couldn't foot the bill, the mayor insisted on taking the prisoner to Madison county jail to serve his term.

Mayor Wolfe, of Logan, has indicated his drive is still on by ordering all

SILK ALPACA

Silk alpaca is a fabric of unequalled popularity for the simple dress or suit, in white and pastel shades it is quite as popular as in the more serviceable shades.

BEAD EDDING

ded and edged with small brilliants or

Rheumatic Pains Go Swollen Joints Vanish

Twisted, swollen, unmanageable joints are rapidly freed from pain and brought back to normal with Rheuma.
Lame people walk without aid; sleep comes to those who have been unable to lie in bed; hands that were helpless because of terrible rheumatism are now able to do their share for the support of the family.
Rheuma is a wonderful remedy for rheumatism, gout, neuritis, lumbago and neuralgia.
It is a wonder-worker; it never fails, never gives up until every vestige of poison is expelled from the body.
Rheuma acts on stomach, liver, kidneys and bladder all at once and quickly brings long prayed for comfort to distressed sufferers. Wristler, Heon, and all good druggists sell it with guarantee of money back if it isn't satisfactory.—Ad-

C. E. CONVENTION WILL CONVEENE HERE TONIGHT

Many Delegates Are Expected

Speakers prominent in Christian Endeavor work all over the state will gather here tonight and tomorrow to deliver messages at sessions of the Southern Ohio Christian Endeavor convention which convenes tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Second Presbyterian church. Delegates and visitors started arriving this morning and by the time the first business session is held Friday morning a large number of C. E. members from eleven counties are expected to be on hand.
Conferences on every phase of Christian Endeavor work will be held tomorrow, with the climax of the two days session coming at the consecration service Friday night.
The public is cordially invited to these sessions, and particularly to the two evening meetings.

Acting as host to the incoming delegates is the Portsmouth City Christian Endeavor Union, of which Robert Holtbrook is president, and composed of societies in several Portsmouth churches.

One of the headliners of the convention will be Frank L. Freet of Columbus, general secretary of the Ohio
C. E. Union, and a recognized leader in Christian Endeavor work.

In addition to leading young people's work conferences, Mr. Freet will direct the singing, and will make several addresses. He has spoken in Portsmouth on several occasions, and has been in all sections of southern Ohio on speaking tours. His presence at this convention guarantees a high class program.

Roy Irwin Farmer, Stoenbenville minister, and official of the Ohio C. E.
Union, is another speaker on the program.

Mr. Farmer is a quiet hour expert, and a speaker of great ability. He comes to Portsmouth highly recommended, and much is expected from his work at the convention.

White, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Jackson, and a leader in young people's work.

Mr. White is also well known in Portsmouth. As a pianist, he is one hundred per cent there, ranking with the best of them, and his work will make him one of the most popular men on the program.

Miss Caroline Boyer of Steubenville, junior work secretary of the Ohio Union, is another of the program's headliners, who reputation is not by any means unknown to Christian Endeavor.

Although she is the only woman officially on the program, Miss Boyer will occupy a prominent part, directing the junior activities, and her work will be of interest to all who enjoy work with children.

Several local speakers are on the program. Rev. William H. Gleiser will have charge of the devotionals at tonight's meeting.

Election of officers and the forma-

Defense Registers Complaint In LiquorTrial; Transferred To Another Court

When the case of Lawrence S. Sprague, 19, Brown's Run, charged with possession of moonshine, came up for hearing in Municipal court this morning, the hearing ended suddenly and was finally transferred to the court of Squire George Morgan, New Boston. The case is to be heard Friday night at the office of Squire Morgan and at that time Sprague is expected to face additional charges, including possession of moonshine and selling moonshine.

This morning soon after the hearing started, Attorney T. C. Beatty, attorney for the defendant, commented strongly on the fact that the court, state prohibition officers, who brought the charges, and the state's chief witness were in private conference in the office of Judge W. R. Sprague. After this remark Judge Sprague remarked that with the defense feeling that way about the case it would be better to try the case in another court.

After some minutes it was finally agreed to set the hearing for tomorrow night. Sprague was arrested January 24. Howard Bazler is expected to be the mal witness against the defendant.

Announce Road Plans For County

County Commissioners Joseph H. Appel, John Bennett and W. O. Shively, County Engineer Charles Noel and Manager Adam Erick, of the Chamber of Commerce, left early this morning for Columbus to confer with State Highway Director L. A. Boulay regarding the county's road building program for 1923. One mile of the Pond Creek road from the end of the present Galena pike paving past the Country Club and two miles of the same road from Olney east are scheduled for improvement this year. Other improvements contemplated are on the Sciotoville-Oak Hill road beyond Sciotoville.

Barker Fined; Mother And Son Dismissed

William Barker, Miller's Run man, who pleaded guilty to a charge of possession of property designed for the manufacture of liquor following his arrest yesterday by county officers, was passed a fine of $200 by Judge Squire George S. Morgan Thursday and in default of payment the defendant was committed to the county jail.

As a result of an investigation, Mrs. Lena Jackson, 41, and her son, Willie Jackson, 14 years old, were taken into custody yesterday at their home at Miller's Run, for alleged manufacturing and possession of liquor but Mrs. Jackson was dismissed by Magistrate Morgan for lack of proof. The Jackson boy on being brought into juvenile court today on a delinquency charge, admitted making some liquor on the still owned by Barker, but declared that his product was not of a good quality and that it wouldn't bring much of a price on the market. After hearing the lad's story the court made him a ward of the court and sent him home.

Powellville Man Hit By Automobile

George Hoover, 50, of Powellville, sustained a fractured left rib and a badly lacerated right knee about 10 o'clock Thursday morning when he was knocked down and run over by a Ford touring car driven by Ed Holley, of Ironton, the accident occurring on the pike about a half mile west of Scioto Station.

Mr. Hoover, who was working on a new culvert, stepped back onto the road in front of the automobile. Mr. Holley could not turn or stop in time to avoid the accident and after Mr. Hoover was knocked down two wheels of the machine passed over his chest.

Mr. Holley stopped at once, went to the home of Frank Price, near where the accident occurred, and called Dr. J. W. Hutchens, of Sciotoville. The physician took Mr. Hoover to his office and later sent him home.

WHY WE ARE NOT A REALTOR

The writer's attention has been called here of late by so many different people who are led to believe that property listed with an organization of real estate men of this city, also get the attention and service of the W. W. Bauer Co., that the reasons why we are not affiliated with this organization, is at this time very essential.

First, we want it understood that the object of this letter is not to attack the individuals of this organization, but simply to point out the faults of their methods of doing business. Personally the writer would welcome an organization of real estate men and would be the first to join, if it were from a fraternal standpoint alone as is the case with lawyers, doctors, bankers or business men, and not be compelled to "pool" the property which permits one firm to sell the listings of another, the one listing the property getting 1 per cent and the one selling, getting only 2 per cent for his efforts.

Firstly, we find that people with desirable property, do not approve of this way of doing business, that is to "pool" their property by letting 35 men (which they claim have access to their listings) to trample through their property at any time during the day or at night and without a moment's notice. This method may be all right in selling cheap tenanted property, but it will not work with the better class of homes.

Secondly, it handicaps the sale of your property by the fact that some agents make a specialty of listing all the property, and then sit back and collect 1 per cent, with the expectation of letting the other fellow sell it. But the fellow who really gets out and sells property, will not work on property that only pays 2 per cent, but will push the listings where he gets all the commission. Therefore your property will lay idle, with no one really pushing it.

Thirdly, with a "mess" of listings which some members claim to be 700 or more, this only tends to bewilder the "prospect" with the result that they see so much they can't decide on anything.

The writer's experience is that the public prefers to do business directly with their individual real estate man, and not with some stranger or solicitor. Our plan is to give each piece of listed property our personal attention, from the time it is listed and stay with it until it is sold.

Now Mr. Property Owner, who do you think is on the right road to the successful sale of your property? But remember that we are "Not" a Realtor.

(Signed)

W. W. BAUER

Exchangeites In High Gear When They Hear Talk On Motor Industry

"The Modern Motor Car" was the theme of an interesting talk made before the Exchange club of Portsmouth last evening by A. A. MacDonnell, of the MacDonnell-Bullock company. The attendance of the motor industry was shown by the fact that the beginning of his talk in his statement 1923 figures this year. It is estimated that there are now 15,000,000 cars in use in this country at present and the total number of possible users is estimated to be in the neighborhood of 22,000,000.

Mr. MacDonnell after this brief outline of the country's magnitude discussed the various types of engines, using large drawings to illustrate his remarks. At the conclusion of his talk he threw the meeting open to questions and the interest of those in attendance was shown by the fact that he was kept busy for an additional three quarters of an hour answering various members who wanted to know about four wheel brakes, balloon tires, whether certain kinds of fuel froze, etc.

The "classification" talk was so successful that it will be followed by others.

D. D. Mitchell, vice president had charge of the meeting last evening in the absence of Graves Williams, who has been in the East on business.

Frost Davis had charge of the music, which was "happy" as usual when he is the leader.

Piles

Can't Be Cured From the Outside

External treatments seldom cure Piles. No do surgical operations.

The cause is inside bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.

The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation—start a fresh current through the stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method.

J. S. Leonard, M. D., set at work some years ago to find a real internal pile remedy. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-RID, and tried it in 1900 cases before he was satisfied.

Now HEM-RID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It's easy to take, and can always be found at Wurster Bros., who will gladly refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer—Advertisement.

THE JURY AS A SAFETY VALVE

A concrete benefit from prohibition and prohibition enforcement is the opportunity they afford for the trying-out or testing of American constitutional rights and American principles of liberty. Until the passage of the eighteenth amendment we in the United States have taken our self-government for granted and without suspicion that anything in it smacked of imposed government.

When it came to pass that public officials in various sections of the country found it their duty to vigorously enforce the Volstead act they as well as the public discovered that constitutional amendments do not abrogate the body and preamble of the amended constitution. There was general revolt and protest against the promiscuous search of private homes and seizure of private property by prohibition enforcement agents. It seemed an anomaly that in the land of the free it was necessary for the courts to decree that the sanctity of the home was still inviolate and that legal search warrants had not been antiquated by prohibition.

The public generally knows or soon finds out what it wants. If the United States was small enough a democratic or direct form of government would be practical and the vote would always be the deciding factor. The alternative for nations as expansive and densely populated as the United States is the republican or representative form of government. We elect our law-makers in the hope that they will enact laws compatible with the public will.

If legislators and executives act contrary to the public will, the situation is not beyond the reach of the public. There is still the great American jury. Whether knowingly or unconsciously, the jury verdict is the product of the united opinions and prejudices of the 12 men and women in the jury box.

There is a great hue and cry for law enforcement, except among many of our country jury panels. Wholesale acquittals of liquor violation cases, even where the evidence justified conviction according to the law, are being reported. County judges have found it expedient, where there have been epidemics of acquittals by one jury panel, to postpone trials of remaining similar cases until later terms before new juries. If the American public wants a law enforced it will enforce it. And in regard to prohibition, there is a steady growing sentiment in favor of effective and sane enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment. The hysteria period is passing. The sober second thought of America is coming to the front and it stands for observance of law and maintenance of order.

AN INDISPENSABLE POLICY

An interesting item of news comes from Kitchener, Ontario. A citizen of that town is a member of the local bricklayers' union. The collegiate board engaged him to teach his trade to attendants in a vocational school, and he has been devoting three nights a week to that work. His union fined him $100 on the charge of "selling the trade," and ordered him to appear before it if he had any protest to make against the fine. He failed to appear and the union added $25 to the fine, making a total of $125.

The item has infinitely more interest from an economic point of view than as an instance of union labor discipline. Of course the object of the latter is to restrict the number of skilled mechanics in order to maintain a higher average wage, but suppose the same policy were adopted by all other trades—by roofers, plumbers, furnace setters and builders, window glass makers, and all the other mechanics engaged directly or indirectly in the construction of a building?

The inexorable consequences would be an increase in the cost of the building. If the latter were used, say, for a retail store, then each item of merchandise sold therein must bear its proportion of the increased cost which must be paid by the consumer. If a building were a dwelling house intended for rent, then the increased cost is included in the monthly rental. But extend the policy to garment makers, to shoemakers, to coal diggers and to producers of foodstuffs. Against the increased cost is added to the necessities of life, which must be paid by mechanics as well as by everybody else.

If a builder cannot make a profit out of his enterprise he will not build, and that profit can only be made by adjusting the price of his service, products and rentals to the original cost of conducting his business. Prosperity consists in abundance of consumable or usable things, not in scarcity and high cost.

NEW YORK DAY-BY-DAY

BY O. G. MCINTIRE

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The lean day so oft portrayed on the screen has come to the players themselves. They are drifting back from Hollywood—and pearls and furs are going to pawn. The pinch period is here. The wolf tips at the studio door.

Exaggerated values are finding their levels. As one movie magnate—they are all magnates—said: "The stars have been living too long on the velvet. They gotta get back to ginger-ham!" O, sole mate! And what a trial. What a bother. Glycerine floods the market. Tears have become real.

No one is predicting the length of the slump. But new contracts are not even being mentioned. Six stars have gone into the legitimate theater. They are meeting indifferent success. One leading lady of the films admitted to friends that all she had of value was a white wolfhound. She bought it on the top wave of success for $3,000 and has offered it for sale for $500 with no takers. One home that was rented on Fifth Avenue has been deserted for an apartment in a modest hotel. Outside of Fairbanks, Elwood and Chaplin few stars have saved. And it left with a rush. You hear various tales. One is that great wealth coming so suddenly has ruined star material. There are sinister stories of dope and booze. One magnate counts five who are now of no value because of excesses.

It costs fabulous sums to make a star. Emphases have been built on least. The tormented tongue of scandal destroys a star's box office value as ruthlessly as a Kansas "twister" does a barn. These things could not go on. And came the slump.

Along "Extra Itew," where the polyglot assortment of movie types seeks jobs in the Forties there is much misery. The employment offices who work with casting directors have signs out reading: "No employment of types for three months."

He is a hard boiled old bachelor who now and then permits younger crones to bring their friends for a rip-roaring evening. The other evening a party was in process. The doorman rang. He answered the call. A girl whose lashes were heavy with mascara and whose lips were startlingly red stood outside. She was the kind who lops and had the naive baby stare. He looked her over appreciatingly and rather dubiously.

Finally he said: "You may come in, but once you pull that scintillating phrase 'Yes, we have no bananas,' out you go."

The girl who is always so ready for a "party" whenever asked are usually known as "good girls." Technical chastity is a criterion of virtue.

Abe Martin

Warin' our hearts on our sleeves ain't no bad, but girls ought to keep their souls out of their eyes. Ford is out of the presidential race, but we still have his backers, and the worst of it is, they hardly ever look around before they're back.

They permit hand holding in taxis and perhaps a fleeting kiss at the door—that is all. Yet they do not hesitate to cry some total stranger out of the month's rent or a new dress. It is difficult to think that in almost every instance these are small as in girls who have been in the metropolis only a short while. New York has a way of stripping off the conventions. The country lass of yesterday is the gold digger of today.

It must be difficult to shop for a rich bachelor and procure a suitable gift. There is one who received a specially made shaving brush and encrusted in the handle were his initials in diamonds and rubies.

The best gift for a bachelor, I believe, is a marriage license. I never knew one who wasn't restless and rather dissatisfied. And they say, too, that bachelors make the best husbands. Perhaps there are supernaturally heavy instances. I won't argue the matter. All I know is that I have never met one.

TAKE HEART
All day the stormy wind has blown,
From off the dark and rainy sea;
No bird has past the window down,
The only song has been the moan
The wind made in the willow-tree.

This is the summer's burial time:
She died when I dropped the card—
She left me;
And, cold upon her rosy prime
Fell dreifol autumn's frosty time;
Yet I am not as one who grieves—
For well I know o'er sunny seas
The bluebird waits for April skies;
And at the roots of forest trees
The mayflowers sleep in fragrant ease
And violets hide their azure eyes.

O thou by winds of grief o'erblown
Beside some summer's golden bier,
Take heart, thy birds are only flown,
Thy blossoms sleeping, fearful sown.

To greet thee in the immortal year!
—Edna Dean Proctor.

That New Slogan
"Say," objected the regimental chronicler, poking his nose inside the supply sergeant's shack, "this hat's too small for me. Every time I laugh it slides off my head. I mean one two sizes larger," remarked the sarge pleasantly. "Try and laugh that off."

He say dat all de cooties was natives of Bordenaux, an' de reason dey shunned him an' stayed by me was dat dey knew Ah would sholy finish 'dem quick transportation back home."

Not Such a Worse Idea
"Buck up, old boy," said the sports chap. "We'll go down to the skating rink, get a pair of skates and forget our troubles."
"Good scheme!" exclaimed his lovesick friend. "Last time I was down there I was unconscious for two hours."

The Legion can exist no longer than its longest-lived member. But the Legion's $100,000 Graves Endowment Fund will exist in perpetuity, and will provide for the decoration of every overseas grave as long as time shall last. Do your bit.

AIN'T IT A GRAND AND GLORIOUS FEELING — BY BRIGGS

The Great Wet Way
The two followers of shady ways had encountered each other and their first recited to the second a praising safe-blowing expedition on which he proposed to embark that night.

"How about helpin' me pull the job, Bill?" he suggested.
"Not me," replied Bill, drawing himself up virtuously. "I just got in with a bootlegger, an' I'm going straight from now on."

BERTON BRALEY'S DAILY POEM
HORRIBLE!
BY BERTON BRALEY

WHAT was the crime of Mr. Bok That gave the senators such a shock?
His was a sin we must all abhor, He spent some money in fighting war, And so the Senate consumed its time Investigating this frightful crime, And the senators gathered in quite a flock.

To probe this conduct of Mr. Bok.
Oh, foul indeed is his deep intrigue! His plan might get us to join the league, And so the senators shout "Police! This guy is tryin' to keep the peace! We must investigate what he means By being willing to spend his beans To save the nations from war's red mark.

Help! Help! There's danger 'his scheme might work!"
AND thus the senators nobly try To harry and badger and probe and pry. Because a citizen dared to do A bit toward making a dream come true: Because a patriot bravely sought Something for which our soldiers fought. And the joke of it is that every knook In a wonderful hoost Mr. Bok, (Copyright, 1924, NDA Service, Inc.)

Bible Class Back Superintendent

The Loyal Boreans and the Loyal Daughters' Bible classes of First Christian have been regularly turning their letter over on Sunday morning, as has the Senior Loyal Girls. They have been making an extraordinary effort for the past few weeks along with other classes but have promised to turn in a real treat, but not the least of surprise in the way of attendance next Sunday.

Curiously, perhaps will help them to draw numbers, together with the fact that Mr. King of Wellston will teach the lesson. His reputation as a teacher assures us that his presentation of the lesson will be a real treat, but not the least of the attractions will be the well planned and executed program that is being mapped out for the morning hour. Variety of program, variety of music, variety of teaching, variety of pupils, this will be the slogan of "variety month" February.

The school is expecting not less than one thousand and it will be a disappointment of a well known "variety" if they are not there. Everybody's working.
